

Dear FCC, I feel that the " Do not call list " is the best thing that has happened to my family. We are a busy, active family who juggles many responsibilities. Having phone intrusions by soliciting businesses was an added stress factor that we did not need or want. Please retain the do not call list and its regulations. You will help make this country a little less stressed, and a lot more happy.